

The Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes was founded in 1822.

The functions of the Order are showing goodwill, kindness and being sociable together. Members help each other and other people in difficulty or need; and they also support other Charities in fund raising etc.

The Oxfordshire Provincial Grand Lodge exercises administrative control over Lodges in Oxfordshire which are:

William Southby	Harwell
Banbury Cross	Banbury
Flaming Torch	Carterton
Alderman of The County	Oxford
White Horse	Steventon
Buttercross	Witney

The Provincial Grand Primo for 2017 was Jim Campbell whose Charity for 2017 was OOSO.

Membership of a Lodge is open to all adult males without distinction as to Social Position, Religious Faiths or Political Beliefs.
